Club Data Protection Policy

The information you have supplied on this form with the exception of any disabilities or medical conditions will be entered into the club database and used for the legitimate administration of the club activities. The database and application forms will only be available to persons nominated by the Management Committee. It is club policy that your personal details are never shared with any external agencies or organisations unless required by law or with your permission. CCTV is installed by the club for Crime Prevention and records arrivals and departures to and from the club. These recordings are automatically deleted after 8 days and are secured in the meantime.

As part of our normal administration we do ask your permission to include your telephone numbers on a contact list which is available for members in the club house and also in our fixture booklet issued each season to members. This is so that they may contact you re availability, team selection, travel arrangements or rink bookings.

The club email account hbcdistribution2807@gmail.com is used to email out limited club information regarding your membership renewals or notice of club meetings or events. Your email address will not appear to other recipients

If you wish to give your permission to be included mark yes to any of the following
